GARRISON TO GREET VETS.

War Secretary is on his way to Gettysburg Battlefield.

The veterans at Gettysburg will have as their guest, beginning today, Secretary of War Garrison, who left Washington last night for Baltimore, where he spent the night before going to the battlefield.

He will deliver the address of welcome
on behalf of the United States government at the opening ceremonies of the semi-centennial celebration of the battle of Gettysburg.

1st, 2d, 3d, 10th, 16th, and 17th until 5 p. m.

What Does the Glorious Fourth Mean to You?

The patriots who fought and died for this great country fought and died for you. They fought to give the opportunity of living in peace and prosperity under a wise and just government, where every man should have an equal chance.

Are you profiting by their sacrifices?

If your daily bread is dependent on the whims and wishes of some one else, and you are making no effort to acquire your own independence, you are a voluntary slave, who deserves no better fate.

You have every opportunity to save money, and there are plenty of opportunities of investing your savings profitably—if you have not sufficient determination to fight for your own personal independence, you don't deserve to belong to a free country. Think it over.

We pay 3 per cent Compound Interest on Savings Accounts.

Amory-Munn

Washington society is interested in the news that the marriage of Miss Gladys Munn and Mr. Charles Munn Amory will take place on the afternoon of July 17 at the summer home at Manchester, Mass. of Mrs. Charles A. Munn, mother of the bride-elect. It was first planned to have the wedding in the Episcopal Church there, but owing to the ill health of Mrs. Munn it was finally decided that the marriage should be a home affair.

A large reception will follow the ceremony, and owing to the social prominence of both families the guests will include many representative people. Mr. Amory is the son of Mr. Francis I. Amory, of 413 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, and Beverly Farms, Mass. He was graduated from Harvard in 1912.

Mrs. Buckner M. Randolph sailed last week from Baltimore for Germany, where she will spend the summer visiting friends and relatives. She will join Dr. Randolph here next September.

Mrs. James P. Curtis has gone to Manchester, Mass., and is the guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. James P. Curtis, who is still acting as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, will join his family for the month of August.

Mrs. Mason Gulick has gone to Newport, R. I., for the summer months.

A charming wedding was solemnized last night at 8 o'clock in the parlors of the Partner, when Miss Gladys Mary Livingston, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Livingston, and Mr. Charles Leonard Griswold were married. The ceremony was performed by Mr. James P. Mackin, of St. Paul's Catholic Church, in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The pretty bride, who was given away by her father, looked lovely in an exquisite gown of white crepe meteor elaborately trimmed with point lace, and her tall veil was arranged with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mary Young, of New York, was her cousin's only attendant. She wore a handsome gown of pale pink charmeuse and lace and carried an armful of Killarney roses.

Mr. Harris Barnum was best man for Mr. Griswold.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, and later in the evening the bride and bridegroom left Washington on their wedding trip, the former wearing a smart dark blue traveling suit and a modish hat to match. Upon their return they will be at home, after July 15, at the Montclair, in Belmont Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cushman have arrived in Bar Harbor, Me., for part of the summer.

Gen. and Mrs. Hoxie are at their home in Iowa City, Iowa, for the summer. A recent reunion of the Forty-fourth Infantry at Des Moines, Iowa, the historian of the regiment, Mr. Ira J. Alder, made an address on Samuel J. Kirkwood, the War Governor of Iowa. In closing his eulogistic remarks he paid a marked tribute to Mrs. Winnie Ream Hoxie, whose bronze statue of Gov. Kirkwood will be unveiled at the old State capitol the coming fall. Visitors to Mrs. Hoxie's Washington studio have seen the clay model of the statue in, therefore, a matter of pleasure to her hundreds of friends in this city and elsewhere.

Miss Dorothy Hartman Dawson, of 1433 L Street, who has been visiting at Leesburg, Va., for the month of June, returned to this city yesterday, and left for Williamsport, Pa., this morning, where she will be the guest of Miss Evelyn Reading.

The marriage of Miss Maud A. Lucas and Mr. James W. Chaney took place at the former's home in Calvert County, Md., on Wednesday, June 15.

Lieut. Col. A. J. Gordon Kane returned from New York yesterday, where he went to see his brother, Captain J. J. Kane, U. S. N., depart for Europe on board the Cunard liner Carmania. Col. Kane is leaving early this morning for Gettysburg, and during a portion of his sojourn there he will be the guest of Col. Miron M. Parker, president of the Vermont Cavalry Association. Col. Kane served throughout the entire civil war as an officer in the navy, being twice wounded in action, and serving as an adjutant in the Naval Brigade, and subsequently he served for some years as
